

U.S.C. 1464 shall be exempt from the requirements of the Act, including specifically the filing requirement of section 7A(c)(8), if the agency whose approval is required finds that approval of such merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, or acquisition is necessary to prevent the probable failure of one of the institutions involved.

(b)(1) A merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, or acquisition which requires agency approval under 12 U.S.C. 1817(j) or 12 U.S.C. 1730(q) shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if copies of all information and documentary materials filed with any such agency are contemporaneously filed with the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General at least 30 days prior to consummation of the proposed acquisition.

(2) A transaction described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be exempt from the requirements of the act, including specifically the filing requirement, if the agency whose approval is required finds that approval of such transaction is necessary to prevent the probable failure of one of the institutions involved.

§ 802.9 Acquisition solely for the purpose of investment.

An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act pursuant to section 7A(c)(9) if made solely for the purpose of investment and if, as a result of the acquisition, the acquiring person would hold ten percent or less of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer, regardless of the dollar value of voting securities so acquired or held.

Examples: 1. Suppose that acquiring person "A" acquires 6 percent of the voting securities of issuer X, valued at $30 million. If the acquisition is solely for the purpose of investment, it is exempt under section 7A(c)(9).

2. After the acquisition in example 1, "A" decides to acquire an additional 7 percent of the voting securities of X. Regardless of "A"'s intentions, the acquisition is not exempt under section 7A(c)(9).

3. After the acquisition in example 1, acquiring person "A" decides to participate in the management of issuer X. Any subsequent acquisitions of X stock by "A" would not be exempt under section 7A(c)(9).

§ 802.10 Stock dividends and splits.

The acquisition of voting securities, pursuant to a stock split or pro rata stock dividend, shall be exempt from the requirements of the act under section 7A(c)(10).

§ 802.20 Minimum dollar value.

An acquisition which would be subject to the requirements of the act and which satisfies section 7A(a)(3)(A), but which does not satisfy section 7A(a)(3)(B), shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if as a result of the acquisition the acquiring person would not hold:

(a) Assets of the acquired person valued at more than $15 million; or

(b) Voting securities which confer control of an issuer which, together with all entities which it controls, has annual net sales or total assets of $25 million or more.

Examples: 1. Acquiring person "A" intends to acquire 66 percent of the voting securities of corporation X from X's ultimate parent entity, W, and "A" holds no other assets or voting securities of acquired persons "W". X has no subsidiaries and does not have annual net sales or total assets of $10 million. If the postacquisition value of "A"'s holdings of voting securities of X would be $15 million or less, the acquisition would be exempt under this section.

2. Assume that acquiring person "B" holds voting securities of corporation Q valued at $9 million. "B" now intends to acquire assets of Q valued at $7 million. Since the aggregate total amount of voting securities and assets of "Q" to be held by "B" would exceed $15 million, section 7A(a)(3)(B) would be satisfied, and the acquisition would not be exempt under this section.

3. Assume that acquiring person "C" holds $5 million of the voting securities of corporation R, an entity included within person "T." "C" now proposes to acquire $8 million of the assets of corporation S, also an entity included within person "T," representing 20 percent of "T's" total assets. Section 7A(a)(3)(B) is not satisfied because the aggregate total amount of "C's" holdings in acquired person "T" will be less than $15 million. Although section 7A(a)(3)(A) would be satisfied by the asset acquisition, it will nevertheless be exempt under paragraph (a) of this section.

[43 FR 33544, July 31, 1978, as amended at 44 FR 66782, Nov. 21, 1979]

§ 802.21 Acquisitions of voting securities not meeting or exceeding greater notification threshold.

An acquisition of voting securities shall be exempt from the requirements of the act if:

(a) The acquiring person and all other persons required by the act and these rules to file notification filed notification with respect to an earlier acquisition of voting securities of the same issuer;

(b) The waiting period with respect to the earlier acquisition has expired, or been terminated pursuant to § 803.11, and the acquisition will be consummated within 5 years of such expiration or termination; and

(c) The acquisition will not increase the holdings of the acquiring person to meet or exceed a notification threshold greater than the greatest notification threshold met or exceeded in the earlier acquisition.

Examples: 1. Corporation A acquires 15 percent of the voting securities of corporation B and both "A" and "B" file notification as required. Within five years of the expiration of the original waiting period, "A" acquires additional voting securities of B but not in an amount sufficient to meet or exceed 25 percent of the voting securities of B. No additional notification is required.

2. In example 1, "A" continues to acquire B's securities. Before "A's" holdings meet or exceed 25 percent of B's outstanding voting securities, "A" and "B" must file notification and wait the prescribed period, regardless of whether the acquisition occur within five years after the expiration of the earlier waiting period.

3. In example 2, suppose that "A" and "B" file notification at the 25 percent level and that, within 5 years after expiration of the waiting period, "A" continues to acquire voting securities of B. No further notification is required until "A" plans to make the acquisition that will give it 50 percent ownership of B. (Once "A" holds 50 percent, further acquisitions of voting securities are exempt under section 7A(c)(3).)

4. Assume that "C" is an institutional investor whose prior acquisitions of corporation D's voting securities were exempt under § 802.64. "C" now proposes to purchase additional voting securities of D which will result in holdings exceeding 15 percent and $25 million. "C" and "D" therefore file notification and observe the waiting period. Under this section within the 5 years following the expiration of the waiting period "C" may further increase its holdings in D to any amount below 25 percent (regardless of dollar value) without again filing notification. Section 802.64 exempted "C" from filing notification at the thresholds defined in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of § 801.1(h); thereafter, since "C" filed notification with respect to an acquisition which resulted in its holding more than 15 percent of D's voting securities valued at more than $25 million, the next notification threshold "greater than the greatest notification threshold met or exceeded in the earlier acquisition" is 25 percent of D's voting securities. (See paragraph (c) of this section and § 801.1(h)(3).)

5. This section also allows a person to recross any of the threshold notification levels—15 percent/$15 million, 15 percent if greater than $15 million, 25 and 50 percent—any number of times within 5 years of the expiration of the waiting period following notification for that level. Thus, if in example 1, "A" had disposed of some voting securities so that it held less than 15 percent of the voting securities of B, and thereafter had increased its holdings to more than 15 percent but less than 25 percent of B, notification would not be required if the increase occurred within 5 years of the expiration of the original waiting period. Similarly, in examples 2 and 3, "A" could decrease its holdings below, and then increase its holdings above, 25 percent and 50 percent, respectively without filing notification, if done within 5 years of the expiration of those respective waiting periods.

§ 802.23 Amended or renewed tender offers.

Whenever a tender offer is amended or renewed after notification has been filed by the offeror, no new notification shall be required, and the running of the waiting period shall be unaffected, except as follows:

(a) If the number of voting securities to be acquired pursuant to the offer is increased such that a greater notification threshold would be met or exceeded, only the acquiring person need again file notification, but a new waiting period must be observed;

(b) If a noncash tender offer is amended to become a cash tender offer, (1) one copy of the amended tender offer shall be filed in the manner prescribed by § 803.10(c) with the Federal Trade Commission and Assistant Attorney General, and (2) subject to the provisions of § 803.10(b)(1), the waiting period shall expire on the 15th day after the date of receipt (determined in accordance with § 803.10(c)) of the amended tender offer, or on the 30th
